Dealer tips

Talk to your dealer first. They'll ask you everything they need to know so they can bring you the product that suits you best.

Take your time. Check it does everything you want it to. Remember some controls might be awkward at first.

Ask questions. If you're not sure about how anything works, ask your dealer now.

Do not feel pressured. If the product doesn't feel right, do not accept it. Test drive others. You can even change dealers.

Make sure you're happy. This is about you getting the product that makes life easier for you. Do not say yes until you're completely happy.
